Petition Recd No 1181 of 10th Nov 97
Ex 229
from Venkatappa of Ruggalhalli Kankan-
-halli Taluk.

Submitted.

In connection with the remission of the balance of Rddn. arrears due by one Venkatachellayya defaulting Rddn. Vend Farmer Satnoor circle Kankanhalli Taluk for 1892-93. ~~Certain~~ for which a separate memo has been submitted for orders Certain immoveable properties belonging to the defaulter and his mortgagees were attached and sold in satisfaction of the arrears. ~~Certain~~ Claims were put forward by some of the members of the defaulters family stating that the defaulter had no right to ~~certain~~ some of the properties which were sold in satisfaction of the arrears due by him. It will be seen from the records that upon such complaint some of the sales were cancelled. The case of the present petition from

× Vide Amildar's report in the Vernacular file marked A

Kappalkatti venkatappa (who had purchased a piece of wet land for Rs 470/) is one of them. It is not clear why the purchase money was not refunded to the purchasers concerned, when the sales were cancelled.

If approved, the petition may be forwarded to the Excise Commr., for an early report with a request that, if necessary, refund bill may be submitted for sanction if the petitioner is entitled to the same. Filed for orders.
